About Joe

Joe is originally from Rhode Island. He moved to Southern California in the 1960's. Joe has performed as a guitar player and vocalist for many years. His audiences absolutely love him because he plays and sings for them. Since being in Las Vegas Joe has formed quite a following of fans. These fans tell him that he brings back so many memories with the songs he performs. One thing that the fans love is, that if he does not know a song, he actually learns it for them and performs it for them. Joe knows well over 1,000 songs as is proven in his performances where he takes constant requests from the crowd.
